

A screenshot of the Australian Oilseeds Federation (AOF) website. The page title is "Conferences / Workshops". The header includes the AOF logo and navigation links: Home, Contact Us, Search, About AOF, Australian Oleo, Agronomy Centre, Protein Meal, Technical Info, Oilseeds Industry, Conferences / Workshops, Commodity Groups, and Export. A sidebar on the left lists various events, including the 2017 Canola Pathology Workshop. The main content area features a "2017 Workshop" section titled "National Meeting on Diseases of Canola" at the University of Melbourne, Parkville, on Wednesday, 1 March 2017. It lists a "Welcome and Introduction" by Alex Idnurm and "Session I: Diseases of canola" chaired by Don McCaffery, with speakers Andrew Ware (SARDI), Aubrey Lee (NSW DPI), and Martin Barbet (LWMA). A "Printer Friendly" link is visible in the top right of the content area.
